

Careers and Transition

Default statuses	Weighting
Rarely	1
Developing	2
Secured	3
Independent	4

Careers and Transition

	Developing Yourself	Learning about Careers and the World of Work	Developing Employability Skills	Being Independent
Statements	I can recognise my strengths, interests, abilities, skills, potential, attitude and achievements. I am aware that my behaviour, attendance and attitude in school will affect my next stage of learning. I can talk about how knowing about careers and the world	Explain ideas about what I might want to do and know where to go for more information. I am aware of how work is changing. I can explain different types of jobs and how they work.	I have spoken with employers, college providers on college link and am aware of part time jobs. I have been on a work experience placement and reflected on what I learnt there. I have a personal statement for my Record of Achievement and have included areas from outside school.	I can demonstrate ways to keep safe when in the home. I can prepare for a shopping trip to buy items for daily living requirements. I can cook basic food items and dishes. I understand how to keep safe when travelling around. of work is good in helping me think about my future.

I can find out information about jobs in my local area.

I can recognise stereotyping, discrimination and other barriers to everyone being the same.

I understand the need for working safely to keep me and other people safe.

I can manage my own money and understand how to budget.

I am aware of the choices for me when I leave school and have done some research on them.

I have spoken to teachers/parents/work experience and post 16 providers to help me decide on my future.

I have practised an interview for college/work experience or with an employer.

I can write an application letter or fill in a form for college/work experience/job. I know what a CV is.

I know how to keep safe for a planned trip outside the home.

I am able to plan a visit to a chosen travel and tourism destination.

I recognise who to go to for help in school/college/work placement and in the outside world.